Implications of Recent Supreme Court ruling on Industrial Strikes

2096. SHRI SANJAY DALMIA: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government has since studied the implications of the recent Supreme Court ruling that even a legal strike would entail wage loss unless the strike was justified in the larger interest of the society; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI P.A. SANGMA): (a) and (b) The essence of the judgement of the Supreme Court is that strike period wages should not be paid to workers unless the strike is both legal and justified. Copies of the judgement have been sent to the Lobour Departments of various State Governments and major public sector undertakings requesting them to bring the contents of the judgement to the notice of all concerned for guidance.
